AIM

This hysteroscopy course is designed to enhance the skills of surgeons to perform both operative and advanced hysteroscopic operations with confidence.

It is especially designed for trainees and consultants who would like to upskill their capabilities with complex cases and develop expertise in the outpatient hysteroscopic procedures. This course fully covers the RCOG syllabus for Hysteroscopy ATSM.

Format

- Pre course text available
- Practical and theoretical Presentations
- Video presentations
- Interactive sessions
- Hands on with instruments and Virtual simulators for Polypectomy, ESSURE insertions and septum resections

The salient features of course will be

- Lectures on ambulatory hysteroscopy and new developments. Evidence based research
- Nature of distension mediums and different scopes.
- Principles of electrosurgery
- Imaging update and data collection in Hysteroscopy
- Managing complications (fluid overload, bleeding, injuries)
- Hands on simulator and models for ESSURE, Polypectomy and ablation

Faculty

- Mr Richardson³. Consultant Gynaecologist London
- Mr A Raza³. Consultant Gynaecologist London
- Mr Nick Panay Consultant Gynaecologist, Queen Charlotte, s and Chelsea

Invited Faculty

- Ms Karen Joash, Consultant Gynaecologist. Queen Charlotte and Chelsea
- Ms Natalie Cooper. OPT trial Coordinator

- Course fee: 495.00
- Limited places are available so book early.
- To register for the course please go to www.chelwest.nhs.uk/sim/registration
- For more information contact eduadmin@chelwest.nhs.uk Or call +44 (0)20 3315 8538

Chelsea Centre of Minimal Invasive Gynaecology (CCMIG)

Chelsea and Westminster Hospital London