

CRISES IN OBSTETRIC ANAESTHESIA

AIMS

This one-day course aims to train anaesthetists to avoid and deal with crises in obstetric anaesthesia. The focus is both on teamwork and behavioural issues, and on technical tips and core knowledge. The setting is a simulated theatre with an advanced simulation manikin.

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the course participants will have a greater awareness of the importance of effective communication, teamwork, and other aspects of crisis prevention/management, and improved their practical knowledge of relevant obstetric anaesthesia

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This course is aimed at anaesthetic trainees covering the labour ward.

HOW TO REGISTER

You can register online via the Chelsea and Westminster Hospital website; the course fee is £250. The venue for this course is the Centre for Clinical Practice (Lower Ground Floor, Lift Bank D). For queries please contact the Simulation team (020 331)5 8632 or via the e-mail address below.
