Simulation of Hospital Interdisciplinary work in Emergencies (SHInE on Labour Ward)

OVERVIEW
This FREE one-day course begins with a morning of small group workshops to improve your ‘real world’ knowledge, followed by high fidelity simulation training. We will concentrate on human factors such as communication, team working, and crisis management on Labour Ward. We will increase your confidence in managing obstetrics emergencies ahead of starting on call duties at ST3 level.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?
The course is offered exclusively to ST3 level trainees from Imperial School of Anaesthesia and ST2 level trainees from North West London Obstetrics and Gynaecology. This training day is designed to meet the educational needs of the above training grades and is mapped to the relevant curricula.

The course is endorsed by Imperial School of Anaesthesia and North West London Obstetrics and Gynaecology School.

Cost: Free
